

Part of the cleveland.com Concert Series

Bob Dylan & His Band

November 2nd, 8:00pm

University of Akron's E.J. Thomas Hall

On Sale Friday, September 24 at 10:00am

Cleveland, OH – September 20, 2010 – Bob Dylan's influence on popular music is incalculable. The Grammy, Golden Globe and Academy Award-winning American singer-songwriter, author, musician, and poet returns to Akron for a legendary show at the University of Akron's E.J. Thomas Hall November 2nd.

Most of Dylan's notable work dates from the 1960s, when he became an informal documentarian and reluctant figurehead of American unrest. Some of his songs, such as "Blowin' in the Wind," "The Times They Are a-Changin'" and "Like a Rolling Stone" became anthems of the anti-war and civil rights movements. For five decades, Bob Dylan has shared his music and vision all over the world with countless accolades, including his induction into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame & Museum. Don't miss your chance to see this living legend live in concert.

For additional tour information please visit www.bobdylan.com.

Reserved Seat Tickets: $59.50, $49.50
Student Tickets: $29.50 available only at the box office with a valid college student ID

Tickets go on sale Friday, September 24 at 10:00am and will be available at www.livenation.com, all Ticketmaster locations, the E.J. Thomas Hall box office and charge by phone (800)745-3000.