HOUSE OF BLUES® CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hinder

With My Darkest Days and Default

Wednesday, November 17 * doors at 7:00 PM

Tickets: $23.50 in advance * 4 pack for $70

Ages: All

On Sale Friday, October 15 @ 10 AM

Combining raw riffs with big hooks and vocal harmonies, Hinder take their cues from rock legends like Aerosmith, AC/DC, KISS, and Guns N' Roses, and update them with modern guitar sounds. Their triple platinum debut Extreme Behavior documented the decadence and strained relationships of these retro rock juggernauts, whose subsequent cover of Steppenwolf's "Born To Be Wild" for NASCAR was a natural extension of their lives on the road. Hinder's third and highly anticipated studio album American Nightmare will be released in December 2010.

In The Cambridge Room...

Josh Hoge, Todd Carey and Isaac Russell

Sunday, December 12 * doors at 7:00 PM

Tickets: $10 in advance * 4 pack for $30

Ages: All

On Sale Friday, October 15 @ 10 AM

Much like his hometown of Nashville, singer Josh Hoge represents Music City's competing spirits of tradition and rebellion. Yet, in a town known for the tradition of country music, there's no denying that rock, pop and soul have all buried their roots into the streets of the city.

Acclaimed for his hot-wire live performances, Todd Carey has been hailed as a talented musician with a lot of energy. Carey performed over 100 shows in clubs, festivals and college campuses, opening for the aristocratic likes of Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, Jackson Browne, The Black Crowes, Jason Mraz and more. Carey consistently earned new fans with his winning on-stage style.

Fearless. Trailblazing. Unforgettable. Just some of the words that have been used to describe Isaac Russell, the eighteen year-old singer, songwriter and guitar-playing troubadour who makes his Columbia Records debut in Summer 2010 with the release of his stunningly-affecting 5-song self-titled EP

Boys From The County Hell

A Tribute to The Pogues

Thursday, December 23 * doors at 8:00 PM
Tickets: $10 in advance * 4 pack for $30
Ages: All
On Sale Friday, October 15 @ 10 AM

Boys From The County Hell is an authentic tribute to the legendary Irish band, The Pogues. Since the band's creation in 2000, they have toured throughout the Mid-West and have taken their talents all the way to Bangkok for a special St. Patrick's Day engagement. Comprising of some of the best local musicians in Cleveland, The Boys' "all out" attitude has earned them the reputation of being one of the best Pogues tribute bands, ever.

Chimaira Christmas 11

Thursday, December 30 * doors at 7:00 PM
Tickets: $20 in advance * 4 pack for $60
Ages: All
On Sale Friday, October 15 @ 10 AM

There's an obscure Chinese proverb that roughly translates as "There is one thing greater than money and power: Enthusiasm." While some of the more cynical bastards in the world would dismiss that statement as some kind of hollow fortune-cookie philosophy, that lesson is something the Cleveland-based metal outfit Chimaira have taken to heart. With four records and a decade of service in the trenches behind them, the band—singer Mark Hunter, guitarists Rob Arnold and Matt DeVries, bassist Jim LaMarca, drummer Andols Herrick and keyboardist Chris Spicuzza—have created The Infection, their second release for Ferret Music and their most ambitious recording yet.
