Aaron Lewis of Staind Solo and Acoustic Performance

Monday, October 18 * doors at 7:00 PM

Tickets: $32.50 in advance

Ages: All

On Sale Friday, September 10 @ 10 AM

Though perhaps known for his work with the grunge- and Americana-influenced band Staind, Aaron Lewis is embarking upon another solo acoustic tour. In fact, playing acoustically is how Lewis got his start and helps highlight his heartfelt lyrics. Over the years, his solo tours have drawn large audiences and allowed him time to write songs on his own exploring the different places he's been, both in the country and in his life. This year continues the trend, with Lewis performing acoustic covers of Staind songs as well as his own music, reflecting his personal experiences.

California born singer-songwriter Greg Laswell has been growing as a musician since he began his career with the San Diego-based band Shillglen in 1998. After they disbanded he recorded and produced several albums ranging from covers to an exploration of heartbreak following his divorce. Laswell has also had music featured in hit television shows including True Blood, Castle, and 90210, and his single "Off I Go" was written specifically for the season finale of Grey's Anatomy. Laswell is now touring in support of his newest album, "Take a Bow," which he says features less melancholy influences than his previous releases.
